Welcome to Pearl Family Church

At Pearl Family Church we are here to help you grow into everything God has created you to be as you discover that you are the pearl of great worth.

Matt. 13:45-46 (WNT) the Kingdom of the Heavens is like a jewel merchant who is in quest of choice pearls. He finds one most costly pearl; he goes away; and though it costs all he has, he buys it.

Songs

Symphony - Switch

Feels like everything is crashing down
Still I know where my hope is found
And it's only You

You say You're working
Everything for my good, and (Rom. 8:28)
Ooooh
I believe every word

Drowning out the voices all around me
Through all of this chaos
You are writing a symphony

Tune my heart to Your beat
Let me be Your melody

You make dust your grand design

VERSE 3

For a glorious resurrection
I'm restored and raised to life
Recreated in your presence

You make dust your grand design

Rev. 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice speaking in Heaven. It said, "The salvation and the power and the Kingdom of our God have now come, and the sovereignty of His Christ; for the accuser of our brethren has been hurled down--he who, day after day and night after night, was wont to accuse them in the presence of God.

Rev. 12:11 (ISV) Our brothers conquered him by the blood of the lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to their lives even in the face of death.

The Secret Power of Joy - Mark Hankins - I'm on medication

Prov. 17:22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

A merry heart really does good like a medicine and a broken spirit does make one sick. Just naturally speaking, laughter, happy emotions, and expressions of joy release endorphins that relieve pain. I like to say that some peoples endorphins haven't been out for so long, that if they did come out, they would be dressed like seventies' style! Even psychologists say laughter is the best way to deal with stress and it's mental and physical effects. Laughter improves our health, helping our immune system fight disease, lowering our blood pressure, and fighting heart disease. The best thing about it is that it is one of the medicines prescribed by our Heavenly Father, the Great Physician. Let's take a closer look at the physical benefits of laughter.

According to Dr. Gjerdingen, a family physician and professor at the University of Minnesota Medical School, humor promotes good health.

Humor is defined as a stimulus that helps people laugh and feel happy, while laughter is a response to humor that involves positive physiological and psychological reactions. The positive emotions associated with laughter and humor involves the dopamine system of the brain. When one laughs, various muscle groups are activated, but the period after the laugh is characterized by general muscle relaxation, which can last up to 45 minutes. Greater relaxation is seen with true laughter, compared to a simulated laughter.

Melissa Breyer, an author for "Healthy Living," shows what happens physiologically and psychologically when a person laughs. Here are a few things that it does:

- Lowers blood pressure
- increases vascular blood flow in oxygen of the blood
- Gives a workout to the diaphragm and abdominal, respiratory, facial, leg , and back muscles
- reduces certain stress hormones such as cortisol and adrenaline
- increases the response of humor and disease-killing cells such as Gamma-interferon and T-cells
- defense against respiratory infections (even reducing the frequency of colds) by immunoglobulin in saliva.
- Increases memory in learning in a study at John Hopkins University Medical School, humor during instruction led to increased test scores
- improves alertness, creativity, and memory.

"Humor and creativity work in similar ways," says humor guru William Fry, M.D., of Stanford University. "By creating relationships between two disconnected items, you engage the whole."

Have you ever seen the television commercial advertising a drug to help you sleep that has a butterfly floating through the window and around a peaceful, sleeping lady? I was watching it and thought, “Hmmm, I’d like that. I’ve never had a butterfly come in my window while I’m sleeping. Maybe I should get some of that.” Then they began to read all the possible side effects of this particular medication. “This medication may cause rapid heartbeat, stroke, nervousness and sleeplessness, dry mouth, nausea, blood clots and thoughts of suicide and depression. It may cause you to never enjoy romance again.” Whoa! Change the channel! Butterflies or no butterflies, I don’t want that medication. Get it far away from me!

You’ve got a better choice prescribed by Dr. Jesus, the One Who made you. His laughter medication doesn’t have any negative side effects! All you experience is the joy of the Lord. Who knows you may even get addicted to laughing at the possibilities! That’s okay. Smith Wigglesworth said, “Faith laughs and possibilities.” You may be having an impossible challenge now but stop whatever you’re doing and laugh right now. If people think you are strange when you are laughing and rejoicing, just tell them, “I’m on medication” (Hankins, 20-23).

Ps. 23:2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

Ps. 91:16 With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Ps. 16:11 You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Ps. 90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

Act 2:38-41 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

Job 33:12 (GNB) But I tell you, Job, you are wrong. God is greater than any human being.

Job 33:13 Why do you accuse God of never answering our complaints?

Job 33:14 Although God speaks again and again, no one pays attention to what he says.

Job 33:15 At night when people are asleep, God speaks in dreams and visions.

Job 33:16 He makes them listen to what he says, and they are frightened at his warnings.

Job 33:17 God speaks to make them stop their sinning and to save them from becoming proud.

Act 2:17 (KJV) And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

Heb. 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Act 2:18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

Joel 2:27 (KJV) And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

Joel 2:28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

Dan. 1:17 (GNB) God gave the four young men knowledge and skill in literature and philosophy. In addition, he gave Daniel skill in interpreting visions and dreams.

Dan. 1:17 (KJV) Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

Gen. 41:41-43 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck; And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

Gen. 47:25-28 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants. And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's. And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly. And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

Matt. 1:20-23 (KJV) But while he thought on these things (divorce), behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

Deut. 13:1-3 (NASB) If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder comes true, concerning which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us go after other gods (whom you have not known) and let us serve them,' you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams; for the Lord your God is testing you to find out if you love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deut. 13:10 (KJV) And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought (false priests) [to thrust thee away]^{H5080} from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

H5080 - to push off, literally and figuratively (to expel, mislead, strike, inflict, etc.): - banish, bring, cast down (out), chase, compel, draw away, drive (away, out, quite), fetch a stroke, force, go away, outcast, thrust away (out), withdraw.

Deut. 13:10 (ISV) Stone him to death, because he sought to lure you from the LORD your God who brought you from the land of Egypt, from the land of slavery.

Exod. 13:9 And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD'S law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

Deut. 26:8-9 And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders: And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with milk and honey.

Num. 13:23-24 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs. The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

Num. 13:32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature.

Num. 14:1 (KJV) And all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night.

Num. 14:2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

Num. 14:3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

Num. 14:7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

Num. 14:8 If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

Num. 14:10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

Num. 14:11 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

Num. 14:12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

Num. 14:13 And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

Num. 14:14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

Num. 14:15 Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

Num. 14:16 Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

Num. 14:17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

Num. 14:18 The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

Num. 14:19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

Num. 14:20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to thy word:

Num. 14:21 But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

Num. 14:22 Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

Num. 14:23 Surely they shall not see the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:
